Declaration of agreement to the collection and processing of data by the Blickwinkel Afrika e.V. Development Association in accordance with the German Data Protection Regulations (DSGVO)

The German data protection act obliges us to inform you as a member, donor or interested party of the development association Blickwinkel Afrika about our methods to collect and process the personal data we receive from you.

Upon signing our declaration of sponsorship, we collect and process the following personal data from you: Name, postal address, telephone number, e-mail address, bank details. These data are filed and digitally stored by us and can only be retrieved by authorised persons. We hereby confirm that all electronic data processing and bookkeeping activities carried out by us conform to the applicable laws and regulations and is necessary for the internal sponsorship implementation. Furthermore, all further data collection activities require the member's consent. Data will be automatically deleted after 18 months if it is no longer required for membership purposes.

Membership rights: The member is entitled to terminate this agreement at any time without any reason. Moreover, the member may request correction, deletion or restriction of the collected data, if necessary. The member may also request detailed information about the scope of the collected data by contacting us at the address below. Data transfer can also be requested should the member wish to have his/her data transferred to a third party.

Consequences of not signing: The member has the right to decline this agreement. However, since our association relies on the collection and processing of your personal data, we would not be able to give further information about the use of the donations received. Additionally, we would not be able to issue donation receipts.

Contact details: Requests for information and other concerns should be addressed to our association: Blickwinkel Afrika e.V., Gravenhorster Straße 19, 49477 Ibbenbüren, Germany.

Consent: Please fill in and sign the lower section of this agreement and return to us within 14 days of receipt of this letter. Please enclose a stamped back envelope, if possible.
